

Mutual of America Announces 10 Recipients of 2011 Community Partnership Award

Award Honors Nonprofit Organizations Across U.S. for Contributions to Society

NEW YORK, Nov. 17, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Mutual of America announced the recipients of its 2011 Community Partnership Award, which annually honors the outstanding contributions that nonprofit organizations, in partnership with public, private and other social sector organizations, make to society.

This year's Governor Hugh L. Carey Award recipient, given to the national award-winning program, is College Possible Access and Success Partnership, which helps economically disadvantaged high school students navigate the college admissions process and continues to work with them in college as they prepare for their chosen careers.

The 2011 recipients, whose programs tackle critical issues such as adoption, teen pregnancy, homelessness and access to healthcare, include:

Governor Hugh L. Carey Award

College Possible Access and Success Partnership (College Possible, Saint Paul, MN)

Honorable Mention Recipients

Family Connections (Three Rivers Adoption Council, Pittsburgh, PA)
PACE Center for Girls Expansion (PACE Center for Girls, Jacksonville, FL)

Merit Finalists

Haven for Hope (Haven for Hope of Bexar County, San Antonio, TX)
HavenHouse St. Louis/Family Centered Care (HavenHouse St. Louis, St. Louis, MO)
